

LEONARDO CANDLED AT MA ZONE (LEFT) , SALLY MCCUBBIN OF VEST COLLECTIVE (RIGHT)

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE...

KOSOY BOUCHARD, SUSHI PLATE (TOP)

DRAGON HEIR (BELOW LEFT), UP TO YOU, (CENTRE AND RIGHT)

As we scramble to get ready for the holidays (and IDS07!), we thought we'd share some last minute gift ideas...give a little zen with Kosoy & Bouchard's Zen Pressware Collection, combining the contemporary with a Japanese aesthetic...or for the funky friends on your list, glass bowls in bright colours by Sally McCubbin of Vest Collective...for the enviro-designer, Leonardo's candy coloured glass candleholders have an LED light inside that can be set to one of five different colours or programmed to go through the whole psychedelic range, available at Armin Martiros' Ma Zone Home Décor (who incidentally will also be designing the Yellow Room presented by Yellowpages.ca at IDS07)... For the design techno-cat, Axiom Audio's Award-Winning M2 Bookshelf speaker provides luxurious sound and is available in over 100 custom finishes (Don't miss Axiom Audio's IDS07 space designed by Brian Gluckstein)...for the family historian, Dragon Heir's candleholders are replicas of Square Zun (ritual vessel) from the Middle Western Zhou Dynasty... crazy for colour? Tsunami

SPEAKER- AXIOM AUDIO, TUBES, TSUNAMI GLASSWORKS

Glassworks presents the tube series... glass tubes individually or grouped together, are sure to add a punch of colour... and of course, don't forget ol' Saint Nick... Toronto retailer UP TO YOU has the perfect milk (or hot chocolate) and cookies accessory...a dual purpose ceramic drinking mug, in which the base is designed to hold a few cookies or an earthenware mug in which a cookie is embedded in the bottom...

But alas, if your shopping is done for the season, there is always next year...all these items and more will be available at IDS 07, February 22 to 25, 2007...and of course, best wishes for a healthy and happy holiday season.
